Whether carport, driveway, front garden, customer, or employee parking lot: With the easy to assemble Weidmüller stand, you are flexible in your choice of installation location. Thanks to its compact and timeless design, the Weidmüller stand fits into any architectural environment. The housing surfaces offer space for individualization – for example with logos or company names. Premium components and materials, certified production in Germany, as well as the durable design with ease of installation, underline the sustainable concept of the charging solution.
